Organization Type: Private, Non-profit Community Hospital
Location: Island of Hawaii (Big Island)
Salary Range: Very Competitive

Position Profile

Management Recruiters of Berkeley has been retained to conduct a search for a Nurse Manager, Emergency Services based on the Island of Hawaii (Big Island). The role will serve as a clinical expert and be accountable for assuring that the patient care needs are met in the hospital's Emergency Department. This will include effective supervision and management of staff members and coordination of clinical care and competencies. Reporting to the Director of Nursing Services will need to be a hands-on leader who challenges and serves as a role model for staff in problem solving and accomplishing established goals.

Organization Profile

Our client, North Hawaii Community Hospital, recently entered an official affiliation agreement in January 2014 with Hawaii's oldest and largest health system, The Queen's Health System. The facility is a 33 bed Level III trauma acute care hospital. NHCH provides services to more than 30,000 residents in its service area. Opened in 1996, they are dedicated to improving access to care and providing high-quality services at a reasonable cost. Through its philosophy of patient-centered care, this innovative and unique facility strives to set themselves apart from other hospitals through their approach to treat the whole individual – body, mind and spirit – to ultimately become the most healing hospital in the world. They value an environment of aloha which nurtures trust, teamwork, respect, self-expression without fear, and continuous improvement.

The Island of Hawaii is the youngest and largest island in the Hawaiian chain. It boasts one of the most active volcanos in the world, incredible golf courses, sacred Hawaiian historical sites, and the largest privately owned cattle ranch in the U.S., Parker Ranch. The facility is located in Waimea (also called Kamuela) in the North Kohala region of the island. The area is known as paniolo (Hawaiian cowboy) country with its rolling green pastures and stunning scenic landscapes that are unlike any other place on the island.

Position Requirements

The successful candidate will have a proven ability to manage in a chaotic work environment with changing priorities. A strategic thinker with keen problem solving skills, strong delegation tendencies, and a proactive approach to quickly and compassionately respond to the patient's needs, issues, and concerns. Above all, he/she will demonstrate the Queen's Health System's core values of Compassion, Aloha, Respect and Excellence.

Qualified candidates must possess a Bachelor's degree in healthcare, a Master's degree is preferred. A minimum of 3 years' management experience in a hospital/clinic setting or related medical field. This is a great opportunity for someone who is interested in advancing their career by joining a dynamic and progressive organization. FACHE preferred.
